The Victor

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't;
If you'd like to win, but you think you can't
It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you've lost.
For out in the world you find
Success begins with a person's will;
It's all in the state of mind.

Fully, many a race is lost
Ere even a step is run,
And many a coward falls
Ere even his work's begun.
Think big and your deeds will grow,
Think small and you'll fall behind,
Think that you can and you will.
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed,
you are.
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself
before you can win a prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man.
But sooner or later the person who wins
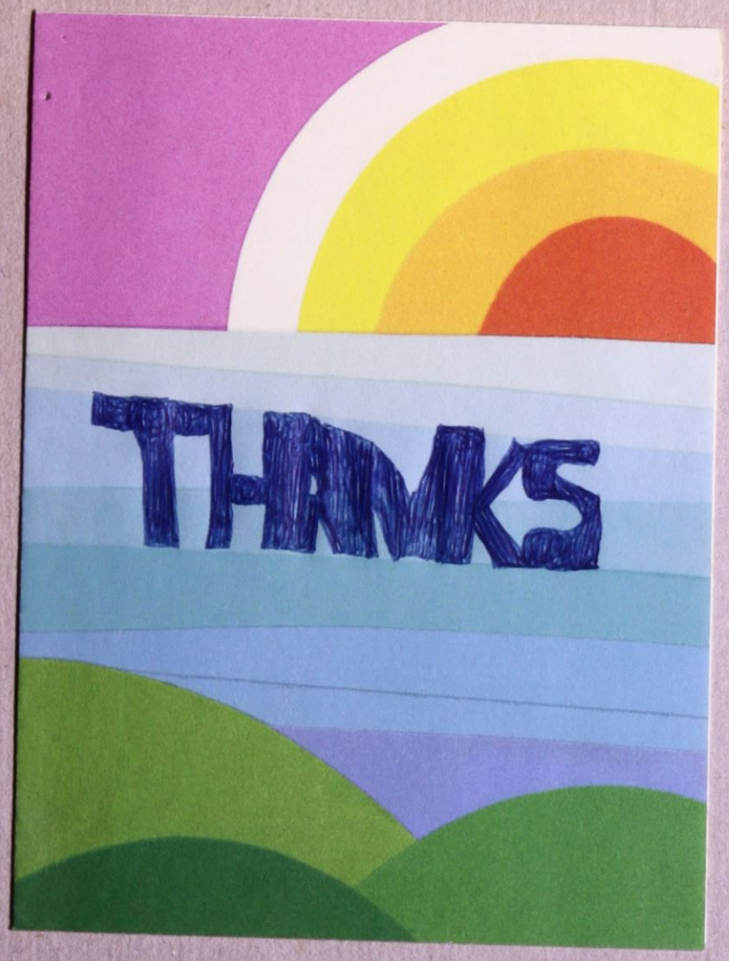
Is the one who thinks that he can.



for the month of Jan. So if anyone's going to Hawaii for Winter Turn - let me know, please! Then after Hawaii I'll be spending some time in Florida. But I get my 2nd week of vacation next spring sometime - when it comes - I'll be home & I'll get up for a little Bit. But that won't be 'till May probably. So I'll see you all then - hopefully!

Well, I gotta go now as the Kids are waking up from Naps!

P.S. I'd love to hear from all of you!! (If you have time)

KIMORA'S TRADITIONS

Girls of Kimora
Sisters are we
We never lose our peppability
Rah Rah We are the best, we outshine the rest
Kimora girls are we! Hey!

Standing high upon a hill

Standing high upon a hilltop is our home so dear, home so dear
We will not forget the friendships that we've all made here.
In Kimora we have found a family kind and true, kind and true.
And we've found Kimora ladies help and love us too.
We'll remember our house Kimora
We'll remember when we're afar
And the ties that have always bound us will reach us where'ere we are
We'll remember the fun and laughter and also the sighs and tears, sighs and tears.
For the friendships made in Kimora will last us throughout the years.
Amen.

THE STUFF REAL GRACELAND WOMEN ARE MADE OF

There is a new craze going on as a result of the novel REAL MEN DON'T EAT QUICHE by Bruce Feirstein. Since the distribution of that book, there has been an earnest discussion about Real Women. What do they eat? What do they wear? How can you spot Real Women walking down the street

A five page article was printed in the Denver Post called "Real Women Don't Eat Ribs." This column identified characteristics of the Real Women today in answer to author Bruce Feirstein's REAL MEN.

The craze made its way to Graceland College via the Des Moines Register with a comment column by Eric Zorn. A group of women from Walker Hall read the article and came up with this article entitled, "Real Graceland Women Don't Eat Cinnamon Rolls."

Here goes gang:

Real Women don't go on screw your roommate dates.

Real Women don't make-out in the passion pit or in lounges.

Real Women don't turn around when men whistle.

Real Women don't go to class 20 minutes early.

Real Women don't go to skates.

Real Women sit in cubicals at the library.

Real Women don't dance to rock lobster.

Real Women only date real men.

Real Women don't eat peanut butter and crackers at every meal.

Real Women don't camp out in Gunsolley Lounge.

Real Women don't answer the hall phone, they have their own.

Real Women don't eat pizza unless a real man pays.

Real Women don't do their boy-friend's laundry.

Real Women wait for the second buzz.

Real Women exercise regularly.

Real Women don't play pinball, pool, or pac-man.

Real Women don't lay out on bikini beach in mid April.

Real Women don't come to Graceland to get their M.R.S. degree.

Real Women don't go to supper at 4:30 p.m.

Real Women don't rush to Sunday lunch.

Real Women don't watch soap operas.

Real Women own a pair of Levis.

Real Women only use spike heels to kill roaches.

Real Women pull their shades.

Real Women don't yell out the windows.

Real Women don't have dates to dances.

Real Women don't wear sweat suits to class.

Real Women don't wear shorts in January after a trip to Cayman.

Real Women only check their mailbox once a day.

Real Women are not seen at Eagleville.

Real Women don't put make-up on before exercising in public.

Real Women get out of Lamoni at least once a month.

Real Women don't accept a date to a formal within 48 hours of when it starts.

Real Women don't curl their hair between classes.

Real Women are not closet caters.

Real Women get calls from real men who leave messages, not BCNM's.

Real Women go to breakfast.

Real Women don't wear matching clothes with their boyfriend.

Real Women don't carry a comb in their back hip pocket.

Real Women don't have all the guys extention numbers memorized.

Real Women receive flowers.

Real Women give blood.

Real Women don't wear guys high school rings or letterman jackets.

Real Women are not embarrassed to go to the restroom at the library.

Real Women don't crank their stereos or date men that do.

Real Women wait for escorts in Gunsolley.

Real Women don't wear wild printed underwear under white pants.

Real Women don't watch themselves go by in swarm-inn windows.

Real Women don't go back for seconds.

Real Women don't bring their matresses to the movies.

Real Women know what a GPA is.

Real Women don't dress up for Sunday lunch if they didn't go to church.

Real Women don't start putting away their books before the lecture is over.

Real Women don't smack gum, chomp ice, or carry purses.

Real Women don't sit at a library table with empty seats.

Real Women don't have posters of male movie stars.

Real Women don't read silly columns like this one.

Volleyball

The women's volleyball team had a busy season coming out with a 24-25 record.

Coach Stewart McDole said, "We had a good season, much improved over last year's 11-25 record."

McDole felt the team's strength lay in its backcourt defense, along with good passing and serving skills.

"Size was not our strong point," he admitted. "Therefore, we were not a strong blocking team."

Outstanding performances were turned in by junior Lena Baskin of Houston, Texas, who was named All-District and All-Conference and by Lauren Hall of Downer's Grove, Illinois, also named All-Conference.

In addition, Hall and junior Patricia Smith of Golden Valley, Minnesota, were both named All Tournament-Graceland Invitational and All Tournament-Loras Tournament.

From our favorite brother house, Edwards. Each member of Kimra received a red rose.

TODAY
TOMORROW
AND ALWAYS

To the members of Kimora.

I have sincerely enjoyed being your Historian for the 1982-83 School year. There have been many great and memorable moments this year - I hope that you never forget them as we each travel our separate paths of life.

Although we may go different ways, I feel that Kimora is really special and that no matter where we end up, we will keep the closeness and the pride that is "Kimora".

I hope that I have captured "the true sense of Kimora" in this scrapbook. So as each of you look through this book, laugh a little, smile a little, cry a little and remember what Kimora is and always will be - a great, fantastic House that I'm proud to be a part of.

God Bless Each and Every One of You, Now and Always.

With Lots of Love
